Dear Mr. Lloyd:

Well, National Coin Week 1969 is far behind us. However, I believe that it was a mutually beneficial partnership on the part of FAO and ANA. We were able to present not only to collectors but to the general public as well, the fact that coin collecting can serve humanitarian purposes.

I want to thank you for your cooperation during the past year and on behalf of the board of governors of the American Numismatic Association, I am enclosing a National Coin Week Certificate for the FAO.

Naturally, the pages of The Numismatist continue to be open to all FAO Coin Plan releases.

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHETTE
Chairman, National Coin Week

Mr. Clark A. Yowell

Dear Clark:

I haven't forgotten Memorial Day weekend and the scrapbook judging but I think that the printer did in getting our certificates back to us.

I hope that I have not neglected before this to write and thank you for the cooperation that was extended and for your time and efforts on behalf of National Coin Week in the difficult task of judging the scrapbooks.

Therefore, on behalf of the board of governors of the American Numismatic Association, I extend the official thanks of the association, my personal thanks and this certificate of appreciation.

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHETTE
Chairman, National Coin Week

Mr. Lee Martin

Dear Lee:

We had a little printer trouble in getting our National Coin Week certificates back but we haven't forgotten our National Coin Week committee. Therefore, you will find enclosed our certificate of appreciation and an expression of thanks from both the board of governors and myself for your help in making National Coin Week, 1969 a success.

How's things in California? We had an early winter here with snow in October but we are now experiencing the real October weather in December.

I have a few comments that I will be writing later this week on National Coin Week.

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHETTE
Chairman, National Coin Week

PS: Lee: I had wanted to get out to California for the show a few weeks ago but President Bergen vetoed my traveling out there. We have got to get together even if it is only by telephone to come up with a theme for National Coin Week, 1970. I would appreciate any suggestions that you might have. -Ed.

Dear Ed:

Belatedly we are enclosing your certificate for National Coin Week, 1969. We experienced a little printer difficulty and then got busy on other projects.

On behalf of the board of governors and myself, I do want to thank you for your efforts in making National Coin Week, 1969 the success that it was. I also want to formally recognize that the theme for 1969 was suggested by you and the staff at Coin World. I think it was a terrific theme and went a long way in establishing the fact that there is more to numismatics than simply collecting coins.

Sincerely,

EDWARD C. ROCHETTE
Chairman, National Coin Week
